2. CAMS2 Computer Center Certified by Fire Marshall

The Fairfax County Fire Marshall conducted a live test of the Halon Gas Fire Extinguishing system in the CAMS2 Computer Center in TRW's W-2 Building on 10 January. The equipment was powered down during this test from 0845 to 1030. Testing included the emergency power off and the Halon dump switches. Freon gas was used in the Halon tank. The test was successful and the CAMS2 Center was certified by the Fire Department. This test provided CAMS2 personnel the opportunity to witness emergency procedures in a simulated fire emergency situation.
